

Optical Holdings, LLC and Clarkson Eyecare Announce
Investment in Chatfield Vision Center

ST. LOUIS, MO – August 5, 2015 – Clarkson Eyecare, one of the largest eye care groups in the Midwest, announced today the strategic investment of Chatfield Vision Center. Chatfield is a two-location practice located outside Cincinnati, Ohio.

Chatfield Vision Center was founded by Joseph Chatfield, O.D. Dr. Chatfield provides comprehensive vision examinations using the latest medical technology, and is a full service provider of eyeglasses and contact lenses.

Anthony Nunn, President of Clarkson Eyecare, expressed his enthusiasm at the acquisition, stating, “Dr. Chatfield and his team have provided exceptional vision care to Southwest Ohio for years. This partnership is a natural extension of our partnership with Thoma & Sutton Eye Care, and joining forces with this brand will provide his team instant access to the many tools and resources of both Thoma & Sutton and Clarkson Eyecare.”

“It is with great pride that I join the Clarkson Eyecare family of doctor centered, professionally managed optometric care,” says Dr. Chatfield.

“Dr. Chatfield has been providing exceptional eye care to the Ohio community for years,” says Dr. James Wachter, Co-Chairman of the Board and Chief Professional Officer of Clarkson Eyecare. “I look forward to partnering with him in the years to come to maintain this high level of care as we grow his team of doctors and opticians.”
